THANKSGIVING.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

AS A PEOPLE we have abundant reason for the exercise of gratitude to the supreme Being, for the condition of health, the abundant harvest, the peaceable submission to civil law and order, and the general prosperity with which we have been favored, as a State during the past year. And as the unworthy recipients of these and other kind blessings, we are called upon to suitably recognize the Benefactor's source, "whence cometh every good and perfect gift."

THEREFORE, I, LEONARD J. FARWELL, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, hereby appoint Thursday, the Twenty fifth day of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving to ALMIGHTY GOD. And respectfully request the people of Wisconsin to properly observe the same.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed at the City of Madison, this twenty fifth day of October, in the year of Our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty Two.

LEONARD J. FARWELL.

By the Governor,
CHARLES D. ROBINSON, Secretary of State.
Per JOHN W. HUNT, Deputy.

THE RESULT.

THE PROTECTION HUMBUG.—The whig party in the recent national contest were pledged most unequivocally and broadly in favor of, and the democratic party as unequivocally and broadly against the doctrine of a Protective Tariff. The verdict of the people, by the largest majority ever given to any candidate in the United States, has endorsed the soundness of the democratic policy in this respect.—Morning News.

Such, with more of the same sort, is the interpretation now given by the Free Trade press, to the result. It needs but to come out avowedly for the repudiation of the principle of government aid to Western Harbor and River Improvements, and then the people will begin to see what they have been about.

It is not true, at all, that the "democratic party was pledged" everywhere against the doctrine of Protection. In Pennsylvania it was not so, by many means. In Rhode Island, where Senator James led the "democracy," it was not so. In New Jersey, where Commodore Stockton led them, it was not so. In Missouri, where Col. Benton's influence was so great, it was not so.—Nay, here in Wisconsin, it was not so, and, if it had not been widely circulated in this Congressional district that Mr. Wells was in favor of a Protective Tariff, not even the overwhelming majority of his party could have saved him from defeat.

But no matter: the people, generally, have decided against the principle of Protection;—at all events, we believe that to be the best conclusion to make. Now, let us have no halfway measures. If we must have Free Trade, let us have Free Trade, and no half-way work. Try the people with it. Repeal all duties upon produce and manufactures of other countries, and let us have Direct Taxation. Or, if that is going too far, give us a "tariff for revenue," which shall bear equally on all interests. If it is not a correct principle to "protect" home labor, let us see no difference in rates of duty. Repeal the fishing bounties.—Repeal the laws which protect our coasting trade. Let us have Free Trade, out and out, and nothing else, for four years. In particular, repeal the duty on foreign grain. Let the British Colonies, and Danzic, and Odessa, furnish our Eastern markets with wheat. They can do it much cheaper than our Western farmers can, since they meet and undersell us in the English market. Don't let us mince matters. If the people think they want Free Trade, they should have an opportunity to test it fully and freely. And that policy, which we believe wrong, shall prove the best for the country in every respect, we shall be content, for we wish nothing else. If, on the contrary, and as we think would be the case, it shall prove ruinous to the interests of our country, it will be a lesson for the people, dearly learned, to be sure, but one which, it seems, they will learn in no other way. So let us have genuine Free Trade, unadulterated with any "mistaken sympathy" for American Interests.

The News' Attack on Mr. Tweedy.

The News has "made several beautiful displays" of its temper and spirit, during the recent canvass, "but no specimen is more choice than "its comments, yesterday morning," on the election of Mr. TWEEDY. It calls upon us to say

"How much the fact of Mr. Tweedy's being a "rich man" had to do with his election, and how much it had to do with "those pestilent, yet potent electioneering (whig) adjuncts, Rum and Money ?"

"The atrocious and unpardonable insult" to some 1300 voters of the District, "implied in the "question asked by the News, needs no comment." That paper seems to have no idea that so many citizens cast their votes for Mr. TWEEDY, after an intelligent comparison of the three candidates.—"It openly charges that they were influenced so "to vote by Rum and Money." "Out upon the wholesale calumny!"

Mr. TWEEDY "can afford to view with equanimity "the puny efforts of those who followed him with "abuse and misrepresentation through the canvass. THE PEOPLE have placed their verdict on "all such efforts." With a majority of 48 over the News' candidate, and that too in a Democratic District, "he will not, probably, feel deeply "wounded by the News' "post mortem" attacks. That paper "resembles those reptiles, whose venom," before or after death, is equally innocuous.

Have You a Diseased Liver?

The question, though startling, is sufficiently suggestive, when the fact is taken into consideration that diseases of the Liver have become most alarmingly frequent in the United States.—Patent Medicine Adv. passim.

The above question and suggestion encounter our eyes, in conspicuous type, in nearly every paper which we take up, and their constant occurrence is enough to give the reader a "diseased liver" without any other motive power. It is just an ingenious means of frightening simple minded people into the use of somebody's pills.—Don't be scared, reader!

☞ Scott's vote in this County was 2015—Durand's 1929. Scott's majority over Durand 186. 786 whigs who did not vote for Durand—at least 700 of whom voted for Wells.—Free Democrat.

This, we presume, is the nearest approximation to the truth that can be expected from the Free Democrat. Of the 2000 votes cast for Gen. Scott in this County, at least 250 were given by Democrats. Of the 1750 Whig votes cast, Mr. DURAND received 1929—about three-fourths. Of the other fourth, Mr. WELLS probably received 350 or 400, and Mr. DUNKEE 100 to 150. The official canvass in to-day's paper establishes this fact beyond controversy.

COMFORT FOR THE AFFLICTED.—The Free Democrat denies, with tears in its eyes, that it has "groaned" over the defeat of Mr. DUNKEE, and finds consolation in the fact that it has not been "cursed" for its course during the recent canvass. It rejoices, too, to think that "secret enemies are unmasked :" that "freedom loving Whigs" know that they "have been sold to Wells," and who did it &c.; and that the "high contracting parties will never be able to effect such a sale again." We don't know any body in the District who has been so badly "sold" as our neighbor of the Free Democrat, and hence, no doubt, its excessive tribulation. Sorry he won't be comforted.

DON'T LIKE IT.—The Sentinel's appeal to its country subscribers don't meet with the approbation of the Free Democrat. This is distressing to think of. The "Black Swan organ" even insists that "an appeal to Whigs to stand by it, as it has stood by them, looks too much like a profane parody on the Lord's Prayer."

Does it indeed? Well, we are happy to say that if our course has displeased and disgusted the Free Soil faction we have substantial and satisfactory proof that it meets the approbation of all true Whigs.

EXECUTION OF CONNAUGHTY AND McDONALD.

We learn from Sheriff WHITE, that the execution of M'Donald and Connaughty, (unless prevented by Executive interposition) will take place between 3 and 4 o'clock, P. M. next Monday, the day appointed by Gov. Farwell, in his warrant. The execution will take place within the jail-yard, to be strictly private, except to the officers of the court, the jury, two Physicians, and the reporters of the Press.

It is highly improbable that any interference will prevent the execution from taking place. Gov. Farwell has already signified his determination to leave the case as it was left by the jury. Strong efforts are nevertheless being made by the prisoners, and may possibly succeed. We doubt however whether the Governor will recede from the grounds he has already taken.—Morning News

When the law of last winter was passed, it was urged in its favor that the provision, leaving the power with the jury to decide whether the punishment for murder in the first degree should be death, or imprisonment for life, would take from the Governor of the State the power to interfere in such cases. We could not see this at the time, and cannot see it now, although such was, undoubtedly, the intention of the majority of those who voted for the law. The object of those who proposed it was, evidently, to gain a certain progress towards the abolition of the death penalty. It was objected that it was not only highly improper to give juries such discretion and responsibility, but that, in times of excitement, they would be apt to prescribe the higher penalty, where, in other circumstances, that of imprisonment would be the safer and wiser one.

So, we think, it has proved, in this terrible tragedy, for their participation in which, McDONALD and CONNAUGHTY are condemned to suffer. We listened to the evidence upon their trial, from beginning to end, and, though we firmly believe them to be guilty of the death of John Gullen, yet our belief was not, and is not, such as would have enabled us, had we been upon that jury, to prescribe the severer penalty of the law. And more, we believe that if the Rateliffe case had not occurred within so short a time previous, and its peculiar features been just what they were, the lesser penalty would have been prescribed by the jury.

We have none of that sentimental sympathy with criminals which would lead us to do anything to shield them from the just consequences of their crimes. We are advocates, as our readers well know, of capital punishment for wilful and deliberate murder, believing that penalty to be just to the criminal, and just and safest for the community. The evidence in this case of McDonald and Connaughty was not, we repeat, such as would have justified us to ourselves in prescribing the death penalty. If Gov. FARWELL shall upon due consideration, find himself legally at liberty to change the penalty—if he shall conscientiously believe it to be his duty to do so, with all the information upon the subject laid before him, we believe that the right-thinking men of our community would justify him in taking that course. It is a fearful responsibility, whether it be left to the Executive or the jury. That Gov. Farwell will act from honest convictions of duty, no one, who knows him, can doubt for a moment.

OFFICIAL CANVASS.—We publish in this morning's paper the official canvass of the votes cast, in the several Towns and Wards of Milwaukee County, at the recent Presidential Election. The vote is very much the heaviest ever polled, and shows an increase of over fifty per cent on the vote of 1848. The following table shows the comparative gain of each party, as well as the aggregate increase in the whole vote :—

MILWAUKEE COUNTY.	Whig.	Dem.	Free soil.	Total.
Presidential 1848,	1159	2150	626	3935
Presidential 1852,	2010	3640	527	6186
	gain 839	gain 1490	loss 99	gain 2221

The aggregate increase of the vote is 2221, of which the Whigs get 839, the Democrats 1490, and the Free Soilers lose 99.

On the BANK question, the vote of our County is well nigh unanimous, and the majority for the law overwhelming—4173 votes having been cast in favor, and only 73 against the Law. According to the returns thus far received, the majority in favor of the General Banking Law, throughout the State, will be even larger than the vote cast for "Banks" in the abstract, last year.

A CHANGE.—It has been peculiarly aggravating to us, under all the circumstances, to be obliged, for a week since the election, to regale ourselves on exchanges, arrayed in caps, ladies, exclamation-points, and pictorial illustrations, displayed in every conceivable variety of form, and adapted, as was thought, for the best possible effect. Gradually, however, the columns of the press are assuming a soberer garb. Still, from some distant point, they struggle along, arrayed in order of battle. A few days more, and this will be over. The gasping "coons" and exulting "roosters" will be laid away, peacefully to rest together in the cases; the musket, grape, and cannon shot of the printer's ammunition chest, in the shape of "small caps," "large caps," and job type, will be stowed away for other use, together with the small arms in the way of "exclamation points," "queries," &c.

The war is over for a time. "Peace hath her victories," and to the winning of them, we, with our brethren of the press, address ourselves again.

A TOO LIBERAL CONTRIBUTION.—The Cincinnati Gazette says that on the day of election, "a patriotic Irishman, a little under the influence of Old Rye, after depositing his vote, espied the contribution box for the Washington Monument, and in the generosity of his heart took out the contents of his pocket book, $45, and deposited the whole amount in the box. His wife came to the polls a few hours afterwards and made such a representation of her circumstances that the Judges of the Election humanely returned her $40 of the money deposited by her over-generous husband."

CHICAGO AND MILWAUKEE.—The vote cast at the recent Presidential election in this city and county, and in Cook County, Illinois, is so nearly alike as to deserve a passing notice. We compare the votes of the two counties :

	Scott.	Pierce.	Hale.	Total.
Cook Co., including Chicago,	2089	3767	714	6570
Milwaukee City and County,	2010	3640	527	6186

The vote of the two Cities, Milwaukee and Chicago, bears the same resemblance. It stands thus :

	Scott.	Pierce.	Hale.	Total.
Chicago.....	1575	2892	486	4763
Milwaukee.....	1844	3413	934	4291

APPLES.—ROONEY, at his Giant Auction Room, has a large lot of apples, for Sale at a bargain.—See advertisement.

City Matters.

FIRE !—About 11 o'clock Tuesday night an alarm of fire was again sounded for the Second Ward. It proved to be a small frame house, near Blossom's Brewery, owned and occupied by a German named GEORGE ROPP. The flames made rapid work of it and consumed the entire building. It was insured for $150 in the Milwaukee Mutual Insurance Company, but in consequence of the insurer having neglected to pay a small assessment of 60 cents on his premium note, the policy is void—a warning to all to look well to their insurances. The fire is supposed to have been set by design.

SOUTHERN MICHIGAN & N. I. R. R. LINE.—The boats of this line leave port now every evening at 8 o'clock, on the arrival of the train from the west, and go directly on, making such connection at Chicago as to avoid night riding in the cars, an arrangement of great convenience to travellers bound eastward. A recent change in the command of the Golden Gate has put our old acquaintance, Capt. JO SHERWOOD, on board as master. He will be a first rate officer, and a popular one.

The Golden Gate goes north to Two Rivers on Saturday.

MICH. CENTRAL R. R. LINE.—KELLOGG, STRONG & Co., the active freight agents of this line, have removed their office from the Middle Pier, to the Railroad Warehouse in the river, near the front of Jefferson st., to which the boats of the line will run during the remainder of the season.

SNOW STORM.—About 3 o'clock last evening a snow storm set in, which whitened the ground very shortly, making things look, so far as we could tell in the night, just about as the atmosphere felt all day—decidedly wintery.

ERROR CORRECTED.—In our notice of the fire of Monday night, we mentioned Mr. Levi Blossom as the proprietor of the Brewery burned, when it should have been Alonzo Blossom. We learn also that there was no insurance in the Hartford Company.

BY PARTICULAR REQUEST.—At the earnest solicitation of many friends and admirers of the "Daily Booby," we again publish, this morning, the capital portrait of the senior "booby" of the establishment, as taken from life for the Kenosha Telegraph :

MR. CLEMENT :—Allow me the privilege of saying, if in this world there is a man completely wanting in every attribute of manhood, it is the editor of the Milwaukee Sycophant. A sneak and coward before election, when it is doubtful where the popular majority will be, after election, no whiffet dog is braver over a harmless foe, than he is over a defeated opponent. At the very time when men are laying down the words of strife for those of generous condolence on one hand, and grateful response on the other, this thing, who during the battle sneaked cowardly in a corner, now grows of a sudden brave, and Falstaff-like stabs the body that was slain by noble hands. Charles Durkee is a man that among men, under any circumstances, can command words of respect and kindness, but the editor of the Wisconsin, like the animal I have before alluded to, grows brave over Durkee's defeat, and barks out, at his retreating heels, the epithets he was afraid to even snarl when it was possible Durkee might again receive the popular favor. SCOTT.

"CUBA AND PROTECTION."—The Free Democrat noticing the Sunday Atlas article in favor of taking Cuba, willy willy, says :

We would commend it to two classes of Whigs—those who voted for Wells—who belongs to the Cuban annexation party—and those who voted for Durand, but at the same time privately encouraged the Whigs to support Wells, and publicly gloried in Wells's election. We think some folks would do well to say nothing about Protection or Cuba.

We concur in this opinion—such "folks," for instance, as did their best, indirectly, to elect the Free Trade and Fillibuster candidate for the Presidency, FRANKLIN PIERCE !

OFFICE HUNTING.—A very active canvass has already commenced for the different offices, in this city and vicinity, which Mr. PIERCE is expected to award to "the faithful." We hear, already, of four candidates in the field for the Post Office, two or three for the Custom House; a baker's dozen for the Marshal, and a regiment for the Light House. All who have had office heretofore, expect to be re-appointed, and all who have not, look for the "good time coming."—There will be nobody disappointed, of course.

DODGE Co, Neosho ; Scott, 63, Pierce 80, Hale 31. Congress, Shafter 61, Macy 86, McKee 30. Assembly, Lehman 68, Sayles 109. The whig county ticket has an average of 10 or 12 majority in the town. The vote for the Bank Law stood 140 to 0.

THE VOTE IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The Boston Advertiser of the 4th has returns from all the towns in the state but three. The votes stand as follows :

Scott.	Pierce.	Hale.	Scattering.
53,957	46,834	28,894	1850.

Scott's plurality 7,123.

PHILADELPHIA.—On the night of the 2d, the telegraph reported that the city of Philadelphia had given Mr. Pierce a majority of 3000. We did not believe it ; and the papers of that city now show that Gen'l Scott's majority is 3542. In the county, Mr. Pierce's majority is 1,458.

MASSACHUSETTS.—There she stands ! and with her VERMONT, the "Star that never sets." So the record for Gen. Scott has stood for some days. Last night, the Telegraph brought news that old KENTUCKY and TENNESSEE stand beside their noble sister States.

NEW BRIDGE.—The Dodge Co., Gazette learns that a substantial bridge, 140 feet long, has just been completed across the Rubicon river at Neosho, by Mr. L. S. Van Orden.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT.—The city of Albany contributed $878,49 to the Monument Fund, and the city of Cincinnati $1150.

THE GUANO BUSINESS.—It will be remembered that the ship Manlius, belonging to Messrs. Magoun & Son, of this city, having arrived off the Lobos for the purpose of loading with guano, was ordered off, and left for Callao. A letter from Lima, states that the Government of Peru, on being made aware of this, sent orders to Callao to offer a charter party to her on her arrival, which has been done and accepted, to load at Chincha. It is also stated that the same course will be pursued with all the other Lobos vessels. This action of the Peruvian government shows a liberality and kindness that should not be forgotten in the final settlement of this unfortunate business.—Journal.

A TURKISH BATH.—Bayard Taylor, in his last letter, thus describes a Turkish bath which he enjoyed at the warm springs of Brousa in Asia Minor.

The room into which we were taken was so hot that a violent perspiration immediately broke out all over my body, and by the time the delks were ready to rasp me, I was as limp as a wet towel, and as plastic as a piece of putty. The man who took me was swarthy nearly almost to nothing : his very bones appeared to have become soft and pliable. The temperature of the water is 180° Fahrenheit, and I suppose the tank into which he afterwards plunged me must have been nearly up to the mark. When, at last, I was laid on the catch, and as plastic as a piece of putty. The man who my body was so parboiled that I perspired at all pores for full an hour—a feeling not to be called pleasant at first, but presently merging into a mood which was wholly rapturous and heavenly. I was like a soft white cloud, that rests all of a summer afternoon on the peak of a distant mountain. I saw nothing but peaceful, glorious sights; spaces of pure blue sky; stretches of quiet lawns; lovely valleys threaded by the gentlest of streams; azure lakes unruffled by a breath; calms for days on mid-ocean, and Alpine peaks bathed in the flush of an Autumnal sunset. Then, as my frame grew cooler, and the fragrant clouds of the sarghilich, which had helped my dreams, diminished, I was like that same summer cloud, when it feels a gentle breeze and is lifted above the hills, floating along independent of earth, but for its shadow.

MR. WEBSTER'S OFFICIAL CAREER.—Mr. Webster is the second Secretary of State who has died in office ; Mr. Upshur of Virginia, was the first, he having been killed by an accident, on board the United States steam-frigate Princeton, February 28, 1844. The following is a list of the Secretaries of State since the organization of the Government in 1789 :

Thomas Jefferson, Virginia,	1789
Edmund Randolph, Virginia,	1794
Timothy Pickering, Pennsylvania,	1795

Mr. Webster's Congressional career embraced eight years in the House of Representatives, and about nineteen years in the Senate, in all about 27 years.—Albany Register.

SINGULAR RECOVERY OF A MISSING DEPOSITE.—A gentleman who is doing business as a stock broker at 47 State street, in this city, commenced as an office the room some years ago used as a banking house by the Eagle Bank. In one corner of the room a fire-proof vault is walled in with brick, grated around inside with iron, and closed by means of double iron doors. The broker on Saturday was removing from one of the dark corners of the vault some rubbish and waste papers which had accumulated there, and pushing a stick which he held in his hand between the grating, it struck something which sounded like coin. Upon examining closely he discovered and drew out a small bag containing twenty doubloons and some small coin.

The bag was marked—

D. Draper. 23 doubloons and one half sovereign. 3 doubloons out. June 20.

Thinking that it must be some of the funds of the Eagle Bank, the bag was reported with the treasure to that institution, and requested the officers to try and ascertain if the funds were theirs. Upon examination of the books, it was discovered that some six or seven years ago, Daniel Draper, of this city, made the identical special deposite in the bank ; and after a short time, on calling for his funds the bag had strangely disappeared, and could not be found. The clerk remembers that the most rigid examination and search was instituted to no purpose, and that every means was used to ascertain the manner of its abstraction, but in vain.

The money being a special deposite, the bank did not consider itself liable, but finally compromised the affair by itself and Mr. Draper each pocketing one-half of the loss. And there the matter has lain undetected for seven years, where it had accidentally fallen in an obscure corner of a safe which has been in use to this day, and the bag, which has been in use to this day, and the bag in the hands of successive occupants ever since.—Boston Journal.

UNCLE TOM'S CABIN.—The number of separate editions of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," issued to last Saturday, was twenty-one, varying in price from ten shillings to a shilling, and even sixpence. Of this sixpenny edition, no less than two hundred and fifty thousand copies have been printed. The proprietor has already cleared, in the space of two or three weeks, from this and other editions in which he is interested, about £4,000, and fully calculates they will yield him £10,000. He employs four hundred men, women and children, constantly occupied in binding the work, and has secured and cleared the warehouse in which the principal stationers to find room for it. Messrs. Smith, the railway booksellers, have sold upwards of three hundred copies a day, or the better editions, for some weeks past. The sixpenny edition they do not keep. It is confidently estimated that a profit will be realized to the publishers of these editions of not less than $20,000, and it observes the Literary Gazette with the single exception of the article of last week, not a penny of this will go to the authoress.—London Weekly News.

THE WONDER WORKINGS OF THE TELEGRAPH.—"Licking" telegraphic returns into shape on the night of a general election, is no joke of a job. From about 7 o'clock on Tuesday evening until 4 o'clock the next morning, we were constantly receiving reports from the Morse and O'Reilly lines, from nearly every portion of the Union. Within that time we heard from twenty-four States "by lightning," the news flashing over tens of thousands of miles before tens of thousands of the voters had reached their homes from the polls. The reports came "helter-skelter," without "standing upon the order" of their arrival, or arrangement. Now came a town in some distant county of New York state, followed instantly by a flash from Troy, Hudson, or some other town hard by, and then, quick as thought, announcing the vote of a city or township in Wisconsin, a county in Maine, another in Kentucky, and perhaps, ere one could catch one's breath, sending through the vote of Mobile and New Orleans !

So it goes among the wonders worked by the Telegraph. It is almost inconceivable.

To get all these swarming returns arranged in anything like order, and in their appropriate places, was among the recreations of Tuesday night and Wednesday morning, and served somewhat to beguile the hours and the keen sense of something like a Waterloo defeat.—Albany Register.

INTERESTING RELICS.—The identical pulpit in which Geo. Whitfield preached his powerful sermons in England, was brought over to this country a few days ago, and is now deposited at the Tract House, in the rooms of the City Tract Society. It is about six feet high, nearly square at the top, and is a light frame work of hard wood ; so as to be easily removed from one place to another, and stationed in the open air. It is said He put in compact form by the operation of hinges, and held together by iron hooks. It was sent here by Mr. Geo C. Smith, of England.

In another part of the Tract Society's building, is the chair once occupied by the "Dairyman's Daughter" and the "Shepherd of Salisbury Plain," who form the subjects of interesting narratives, widely known.—[N. Y. Jour. Com.

LA CROSSE AND MILWAUKEE RAILROAD.—The engineers under the superintendence of Mr. Jesper Vliet, are on the route through this village going west, upon a preliminary survey of the Railroad. Mr. Vliet informs us that they find the country admirably adapted to the building of the road between here and Milwaukee. The route surveyed proceeds east of this village near the county line until it strikes Ashippun river at Brock's mill, when it turns south to the 4th North Lake, near Sheets' mill in Merton, thence through the village of Merton, to the Lisbon plank road in the east part of Lisbon, and thence almost a straight course to the Fond du Lac road six miles from Milwaukee. The grades on the whole line are easy, not exceeding twenty-five feet, except near our village. The height of Watertown above Lake Michigan is 276 feet. They proceed hence to Columbus, from thence by Wyeona to Portage City, about fifty-five miles from this place.—Watertown Register.

R. R. V. RAILROAD.—Hon. R. J. Walker has just returned from England with a large amount of funds, negotiated for the construction of the Valley Railroad. He has also completed contracts for the balance of the iron necessary to build the road, and the work will be so pushed onward that very little will remain to be completed after the coming year.—Watertown Register.

An Interesting Letter.

The following letter is copied from the proof sheets of a work in the press of the Harpers, from the pen of CHARLES LANMAN, entitled the "Private Life of Daniel Webster." It is addressed to the overseer of his farm in Franklin, New Hampshire :—

WASHINGTON, March 13th, 1852.

JOHN TAYLOR :—I am glad to hear from you again, and to learn that you are well, and that teams and tools are ready for spring's work, whenever the weather will allow you to begin. I sometimes read books on farming, and I remember that a very sensible old author advises farmers "to plow naked and sow naked." By this he means that there is no use in beginning spring's work till the weather is warm, that a farmer may throw aside his winter clothes and roll up his sleeves. As possible. He wrote sense very pretty verses on this subject, which, so far as I remember, ran thus :—

"While yet the springtide young, while earth unbinds
The frozen bosom to the western winds;
While mountain snows dissolve against the sun,
And streams yet new, from fountains run—
Fresh in this early dawning of the year,
Prod the plow, and poke the sturdy steer;
And good him till he smoke beneath his toil,
And the bright share is buried in the soil."

John Taylor, when you read these lines do you not see the snow melting, and the little streams beginning to run down the southern slopes of your Punch-brook pasture, and the new grass starting and growing in the trickling water, all green, bright and beautiful ? And do you not see your Durham ox steaming from heat and perspiration as they draw along your great breaking-up plough, cutting and turning over the rough sward in your meadow in the great field ? The name of the sensible author is Virgil ; and he gives fourteen much other advice, some of which you have been following all this winter without knowing that he had given it.

"But when cold weather, heavy snows and rain,
The laboring farmer in his house restrain,
Let him forebear his work, with timely care,
Which else is huddled when the skies are fair:
Then let him mark the sheep, and wet the shining share,
Or hollow trees for boats, or number over
His sacks, or measure his increasing store:
Or sharpen stakes, and mend each rake and fork.
So to be ready, in good time, to work—
Visit his crowded barns at early morn,
Look to his granary, and shell his corn:
Give a good breakfast to his tuneful swine,
His all-devouring poultry and his fattening swine."

And Mr. Virgil says some other things, which you understand up at Franklin as well as ever he did :—

"In chilling winter, swains enjoy their store,
Forget their hardships, and recruit for more:
The farmer to full feasts invites his friends,
And what he got with pains, with pleasure spends;
Draws chairs around the fire, and tells one heare.
Stories which often have been told before:
Spreads a clean table, with things good to eat,
And adds some moistening to his fruit and meat;
They praise his hospitality, and feel
They shall sleep better after such a meal."

John Taylor, by the time you have got through this, you will have read enough. The sum of all is, be ready for your spring's work as soon as the weather becomes warm enough, and then put your hand to the plow, and look not back.

DANIEL WEBSTER.

From Lewis's Landscape Painter in Calabria.

A Calabrian Romance.

For centuries the families of these two rival possessors of the towns of Pentedatilo and Montebello had been deadly foes, and they mixed, or fought for, the adjoining country, from their strongholds, in persevering enmity. The Baron of Montebello, a daring and heroic-ish youth, was left heir in early life to high-sounding estates and rights, and fell in love with the only daughter of the Marchese Pentedatilo : but, although the young lady had contrived to acquaint her lover that her heart was his, her hand was steadfastly denied him by the Marchese, whom the memory of long injuries and wars hardened in his refusal. Opposition, however, did but increase the attachment of the young lady, and at last she consented to leave her father's house with her lover : an arrangement being made that on a certain night she should open a door in the otherwise impenetrable rock fortress of Pentedatilo, and admit young Montebello with a sufficient force of his retainers to insure the success of her elopement.

"The Baron accordingly enters the castle, but finding that equal opportunity is presented him for vengeance on his fiendish enemy, and for possessing himself of the object of his attachment, he resolves to make the most of both : he goes first to the chamber of the Marchese of Pentedatilo, and finds him sleeping by the side of the Marchesa, with a dagger at his pillow's head. Him he stabs, yet not so fatally as to prevent him placing his left hand on the wound, and with his right wielding his stiletto, and plunging it into the heart of the innocent Marchesa, suspecting her as the author of his death. The Baron Montebello repeating his blows, the Marchese falls forward on the wall, and his five blood-stained fingers leave traces, still shown on part of the ruined hall—a horrible memorial of the crime—strangely coincident with that of the fatal wound of the Red. Immediately on the consummation of this double tragedy, the active young Baron Montebello carried off the young lady, his retainers having cut all the family of the Marchese to death, save one infant grandchild, whom a nurse saved by concealing him in a cavity of the rock ; the castle was then dismantled, and the lady became a captive of Montebello. But she never spoke more ; and the horror of having been indirectly the destruction of her whole race occasioned her to become insane, and she poisoned herself within a month of her departure from her native town.

"In process of time, the child saved by the nurse grew up, and was introduced as a page into the Montebello family, the Baron having remarried, and being now the undisputed possessor of both territories as far as the sea : but after many years of life, the wretched man became wild with remorse for his past iniquities, and made over all his possessions to the Church, provided only no living descendant of the Pentedatilo family could be found, a decent proviso, apparently made without any risk. When lo ! the nurse and a small number of the old Marchese's friends proved, beyond any doubt, that the page was heir to the estates and revenge of his ancestors ! And here you might suppose the story ended. Not at all. The Baron's hatred returned on finding there was really something on which to exercise it, and he ordered the torture and execution of young Pentedatilo forthwith. But now the tables were turned ; the Baron's long reign of wickedness lent no favor to his adversary's cause, and in his turn, the last scion of the murdered Marchese became a tyrant. Forthwith the whole family of the Baron Montebello were destroyed before their parent's eyes, and he himself then blinded by order of the avenger, and chained for the rest of his days in the very room where he had slain the grandsire Pentedatilo.

"Finally, as if it were ordered that the actors in such a wholesale domestic tragedy were unfit to remain on earth, the castle of Pentedatilo fell by the shock of an earthquake, together the Baron and Marchese, with the nurse, and every other agent in this Calabrian horror."

OUR HETEROGENEOUSness.—Probably no city in the world, of any considerable population, exhibits such a heterogeneous people as the city of New York. Nations and tongues and kindred and people from all parts of the world are here, and our thoroughfares and hostelries are a perfect Babel of languages. In a five-minute walk you meet Christian, Jew Turk, and Gentile, bond and free, of all complexions and creeds. VOLUME VIII. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL. NEW SERIES.

Milwaukee Daily Sentinel.

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 11, 1852.

Rufus King, Wm. H. Watson & John. S. Fillmore PROPRIETORS.

UNDER THE NAME AND FIRM OF

RUFUS KING & CO.

THANKSGIVING.

PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR.

AS A PEOPLE we have abundant reason for the exercise of gratitude to the Supreme Being, for the condition of health, the abundant harvest, the peaceable submission to authority, and order, and the general prosperity with which we have been favored, as a State during the past year. And as the unworthy recipients of these and other kind blessings, we are called upon to suitably recognize the Benevolent source, "whence cometh every good and perfect gift."

THEREFORE, I, LEONARD J. FARWELL, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, hereby appoint Thursday, the TWENTY FIRST day of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving to ALMIGHTY GOD. And respectfully request the people of Wisconsin to properly observe the same.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed at Madison, this twenty fifth day of October, in the year of Our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Fifty Two.

LEONARD J. FARWELL.

By the Governor,

CHARLES D. ROBINSON, Secretary of State.

Per JOHN W. HUNT, Deputy.

THE RESULT.

THE PROTECTION HUMBUG.—The whig party in the recent national contest were pledged most unequivocally and broadly in favor of, and the democratic party as unequivocally and broadly against the doctrine of a Protective Tariff. The verdict of the people, by the largest majority ever given to any candidate in the United States, has endorsed the soundness of the democratic policy in this respect.—Morning News.

Such, with more of the same sort, is the interpretation now given by the Free Trade press, to the result. It needs but to come out avowedly for the repudiation of the principle of government aid to Western Harbor and River Improvements, and then the people will begin to see what they have been about.

It is not true, at all, that the "democratic party was pledged" every where against the doctrine of Protection. In Pennsylvania it was not so, by any means. In Rhode Island, where Senator James led the "democracy," it was not so. In New Jersey, where Commodore Stockton led them, it was not so. In Missouri, where Col. Benton's influence was so great, it was not so.—Nay, here in Wisconsin, it was not so, and, if it had not been widely circulated in this Congressional district that Mr. Wells was in favor of a Protective Tariff, not even the overwhelming majority of his party could have saved him from defeat.

But no matter; the people, generally, have decided against the principle of Protection:—at all events, we believe that to be the best conclusion to make. Now, let us have no halfway measures. If we must have Free Trade, let us have Free Trade, and no half-way work. Try the people with it. Repeal all duties upon produce and manufactures of other countries, and let us have Direct Taxation. Or, if that is going too far, give us a "tariff for revenue," which shall bear equally on all interests. If it is not a correct principle to "protect" home labor, let us see no difference in rates of duty. Repeal the fishing bounties.—Repeal the laws which protect our coasting trade. Let us have Free Trade, out and out, and nothing else, for four years. In particular, repeal the duty on foreign grain. Let the British Colonies, and Danzic, and Odessa, furnish our Eastern market with wheat. They can do it much cheaper than our Western farmers can, since they meet and undersell us in the English market. Don't let us mince matters. If the people think they want Free Trade, they should have an opportunity to test it, fully and fairly. Then, if that policy, which we believe wrong, shall prove the best for the country in every respect, we shall be content. for we wish nothing else. If, on the contrary, and as we think would be the case, it shall prove ruinous to the interests of our country, it will be a lesson for the people, dearly learned, to be sure, but one which, it seems, they will learn to no other way. So let us have genuine Free Trade, unadulterated with any "mistaken sympathy" for American Interests.

The News' Attack on Mr. Tweedy.

The News has "made several beautiful displays" of its temper and spirit, during the recent canvass, "but no specimen is more choice than its comments, yesterday morning," on the election of Mr. TWEEDY. It calls upon us to say

How much the fact of Mr. Tweedy's being a "rich man" had to do with his election, and how much it had to do with "those pestilent, yet potent electioneering (whig) adjuncts, Rum and Money?"

"The atrocious and unpardonable insult" to some 1300 voters of the District, "implied in the "question asked by the News, needs no comment." That paper seems to have no idea that so many citizens cast their votes for Mr. TWEEDY, after an intelligent comparison of the three candidates.—"It openly charges that they were influenced so to vote by Rum and Money." "Out upon the wholesale calumny!"

Mr. TWEEDY "can afford to view with equanimity "the puny efforts of those who followed him with "abuse and misrepresentation through the can-"vass. The PEOPLE have placed their verdict on "all such efforts." With a majority of 48 over the News' candidate, and that too in a Democratic District, "he will not, probably, feel deeply "wounded by the News' "post mortem" attacks. That paper "resembles those reptiles, whose venom," before or after death, is equally innocuous.

Have You a Diseased Liver?

The question, though startling, is sufficiently suggestive, when the fact is taken into consideration that diseases of the Liver have become most alarmingly frequent in the United States.—Patent Medicine Adv. passim.

The above question and suggestion encounter our eyes, in conspicuous type, in nearly every paper which we take up, and their constant occurrence is enough to give the reader a "diseased liver" without any other native power. It is just an ingenious means of frightening simple minded people into the use of somebody's pills.—Don't be scared, reader!

☞ Scott's vote in this County was 2015—Durand's 1229. Scott's majority over Durand 786. 786 whigs who did not vote for Durand—at least 700 of whom voted for Wells.—Free Democrat.

This, we presume, is the nearest approximation to the truth that can be expected from the Free Democrat. Of the 3000 votes cast for Gen. Scott in this County, at least 250 were given by Democrats. Of the 1750 Whig votes cast, Mr. DURAND received 1229—about three-fourths. Of the other fourth, Mr. WELLS probably received 350 or 400, and Mr. DURKEE 100 to 150. The official canvass in to-day's paper establishes this fact beyond controversy.

COMFORT FOR THE AFFLICTED.—The Free Democrat denies, with tears in its eyes, that it has "groaned" over the defeat of Mr. DURKEE, and finds consolation in the fact that it has not been "cursed" for its course during the recent canvass. It rejoices, too, to think that "secret enemies are unmasked;" that "freedom loving Whigs" know untasked;" that "freedom loving Whigs" know did it &c.; and that the "high contracting parties will never be able to effect such a sale again." We don't know any body in the District who has been so badly "sold" as our neighbor of the Free Democrat, and hence, no doubt, its excessive tribulation. Sorry he won't be comforted.

DON'T LIKE IT.—The Sentinel's appeal to its country subscribers don't meet with the approbation of the Free Democrat. This is distressing to think of. The "Black Swan organ" even insists that "an appeal to Whigs to stand by it, as it has stood by them, looks too much like a profane parody on the Lord's Prayer."

Does it indeed? Well, we are happy to say that if our course has displeased and disgusted the Free Soil faction we have substantial and satisfactory proof that it meets the approbation of all true Whigs.

FURNITURE.—Crampton sells a desirable lot of furniture this morning. See his advertisement.

EXECUTION OF CONNAUGHTY AND McDONALD.

We learn from Sheriff WHITE, that the execution of M'Donald and Connaughty, (unless prevented by Executive interposition) will take place between 3 and 4 o'clock, P. M. next Monday, the day appointed by Gov. Farwell, in his warrant. The execution will take place within the jail-yard, to be strictly private, except to the officers of the court, the jury, two Physicians, and the reporters of the Press.

It is highly improbable that any interference will prevent the execution from taking place. Gov. Farwell has already signified his determination to leave the case as it was left by the jury. Strong efforts are nevertheless being made by the prisoners, and may possibly succeed. We doubt however whether the Governor will recede from the grounds he has already taken.—Morning News

When the law of last winter was passed, it was urged in its favor that the provision, leaving the power with the jury to decide whether the punishment for murder in the first degree should be death, or imprisonment for life, would take from the Governor of the State the power to interfere in such cases. We could not see this at the time, and cannot see it now, although such was, undoubtedly, the intention of the majority of those who voted for the law. The object of those who proposed it was, evidently, to gain a certain progress towards the abolition of the death penalty. It was objected that it was not only highly improper to give juries such discretion and responsibility, but that, in times of excitement, they would be apt to prescribe the higher penalty, where, in other circumstances, that of imprisonment would be the safer and wiser one.

So, we think, it has proved, in this terrible tragedy, for their participation in which, McDONALD and CONNAUGHTY are condemned to suffer. We listened to the evidence upon their trial, from beginning to end, and, though we firmly believe them to be guilty of the death of John Gullen, yet our belief was not, and is not, such as would have enabled us, had we been upon that jury, to prescribe the severer penalty of the law. And more, we believe that if the Rateliffe case had not occurred within so short a time previous, and its peculiar features been just what they were, the lesser penalty would have been prescribed by the jury.

We have none of that sentimental sympathy with criminals which would lead us to do anything to shield them from the just consequences of their crimes. We are advocates, as our readers well know, of capital punishment for wilful and deliberate murder, believing that penalty to be just to the criminal, and just and safest for the community. The evidence in this case of McDonald and Connaughty was not, we repeat, such as would have justified us to ourselves in prescribing the death penalty. If Gov. FARWELL shall upon due consideration, find himself legally at liberty to change the penalty—if he shall conscientiously believe it to be his duty to do so, with all the information upon the subject laid before him, we believe that the right-thinking men of our community would justify him in taking that course. It is a fearful responsibility, whether it be left to the Executive or the jury. That Gov. Farwell will act from honest convictions of duty, no one, who knows him, can doubt for a moment.

OFFICIAL CANVASS.—We publish in this morning's paper the official canvass of the votes cast, in the several Towns and Wards of Milwaukee County, at the recent Presidential Election. The vote is very much the heaviest ever polled, and shows an increase of over fifty per cent on the vote of 1848. The following table shows the comparative gain of each party, as well as the aggregate increase in the whole vote:—

MILWAUKEE COUNTY.

	Whig.	Dem.	Free soil.	Total.
Presidential 1848.	1169	2150	620	3905
Presidential 1852.	2010	3640	527	6180
gain	830	gain 1490	loss 93	gain 2221

The aggregate increase of the vote is 2221, of which the Whigs get 830, the Democrats 1490, and the Free Soilers lose 99.

On the BANK question, the vote of our County is well nigh unanimous, and the majority for the law overwhelming—4173 votes having been cast in favor, and only 73 against the Law. According to the returns thus far received, the majority in favor of the General Banking Law, throughout the State, will be even larger than the vote cast for "Banks" in the abstract, last year.

A CHANGE.—It has been peculiarly aggravating to us, under all the circumstances, to be obliged, for a week since the election, to regale ourselves on exchanges, arrayed in caps, italics, exclamation-points, and pictorial illustrations, displayed in every conceivable variety of form, and adapted, as was thought, for the best possible effect. Gradually, however, the columns of the press are assuming a soberer garb. Still, from some distant point, they struggle along, arrayed in order of battle. A few days more, and this will be over. The gasping "coons" and exulting "roosters" will be laid away, pencefully to rest together in the cases; the musket, grape, and cannon shot of the printer's ammunition chest, in the shape of "small caps," "large caps," and job type, will be stowed away for other use, together with the small arms in the way of "exclamation points," "queries," &c.

The war is over for a time. "Peace hath her victories," and to the winning of them, we, with our brethren of the press, address ourselves again.

A TOO LIBERAL CONTRIBUTION.—The Cincinnati Gazette says that on the day of election, "a patriotic Irishman, a little under the influence of Old Rye, after depositing his vote, espied the contribution box for the Washington Monument, and in the generosity of his heart took out the contents of his pocket book, $45, and deposited the whole amount in the box. His wife came to the polls a few hours afterwards and made such a representation of her circumstances that the Judges of the Election humanely returned her $40 of the money deposited by her over-generous husband."

CHICAGO AND MILWAUKEE.—The vote cast at the recent Presidential election in this city and county, and in Cook County, Illinois, is so nearly alike as to deserve a passing notice. We compare the votes of the two counties:

	Scott.	Pierce.	Hale.	Total.
Cook Co., including Chicago,	2089	3767	714	6570
Milwaukee City and County,	2019	3640	527	6186
	gain 930	gain 1460	loss 99	gain 2221

The vote of the two Cities, Milwaukee and Chicago, bears the same resemblance. It stands thus:

	Scott.	Pierce.	Hale.	Total.
Chicago,	1575	2692	496	4763
Milwaukee	1544	2413	334	4291

City Matters.

FIRE!—About 11 o'clock Tuesday night an alarm of fire was again sounded for the Second Ward. It proved to be a small frame house, near Blossom's Brewery, owned and occupied by a German named GEORGE ROPP. The flames made rapid work of it and consumed the entire building. It was insured for $150 in the Milwaukee Mutual Insurance Company, but in consequence of the insurer having neglected to pay a small assessment of 60 cents on his premium note, the policy is void—a warning to all to look well to their insurances. The fire is supposed to have been set by design.

SOUTHERN MICHIGAN & N. I. R. R. LINE.—The boats of this line leave port now every evening at 8 o'clock, on the arrival of the train from the west, and go directly on, making such connection at Chicago as to avoid night riding in the cars, an arrangement of great convenience to travellers bound eastward. A recent change in the command of the Golden Gate has put our old acquaintance, Capt. JO SHERWOOD, on board as master. He will be a first rate officer, and a popular one.

The Golden Gate goes north to Two Rivers on Saturday.

MICH. CENTRAL R. R. LINE.—KELLOGG, STRONG & Co., the active freight agents of this line, have removed their office from the Middle Pier, to the Railroad Warehouse in the river, near the front of Jefferson st., to which the boats of the line will run during the remainder of the season.

SNOW STORM.—About 8 o'clock last evening a snow storm set in, which whitened the ground very shortly, making things look, so far as we could tell in the night, just about as the atmosphere felt all day—decidedly wintery.

ERROR CORRECTED.—In our notice of the fire of Monday night, we mentioned Mr. Levi Blossom as the proprietor of the Brewery burned, when it should have been Alonzo Blossom. We learn also that there was no insurance in the Hartford.

BY PARTICULAR REQUEST.—At the earnest solicitation of many friends and admirers of the Daily Booby," we again publish, this morning, the capital portrait of the senior "booby" of the establishment, as taken from life for the Kenosha Telegraph:

MR. CLEMENT:—Allow me the privilege of saying, if in this world there is a man completely wanting in every attribute of manhood... it is the editor of the Milwaukee Wisconsin. A sneak and coward before election, when it is doubtful where the popular majority will be, after election, no whippet dog is braver over a harmless foe, than he is over a defeated opponent. At the very time when men are laying down the words of strife for those of generous condolence on one hand, and grateful responses on the other, this thing, who during the battle smelled cowardly on a corner, now grows of a sudden brave, and Falstaff-like stabs the body that was slain by noble hands. Charles Durkee is a man that among men, under any circumstances, can command words of respect and kindness, but the editor of the Wisconsin, like the animal I have before alluded to, grows brave over Durkee's defeat, and barks out, at his retreating heels, the epithets he was afraid to scan clearly when it was possible Durkee might again receive the popular favor. S*.

"CUBA AND PROTECTION."—The Free Democrat noticing the Sunday Atlas article in favor of taking Cuba, willy willy, says:

We would commend it to two classes of Whigs—those who voted for Wells—who belongs to the Cuban annexation party—and those who voted for Durand, but at the same time privately encouraged the Whigs to support Wells, and publicly gloried in Well's election. We think some folks would do well to say nothing about Protection or Cuba.

We concur in this opinion—such "folks," for instance, as did their best, indirectly, to elect the Free Trade and Fillibuster candidate for the Presidency, FRANKLIN PIERCE!

OFFICE HUNTING.—A very active canvass has already commenced for the different offices, in this city and vicinity, which Mr. PIERCE is expected to award to "the faithful." We hear, already, of four candidates in the field for the Post Office, two or three for the Custom House; a baker's dozen for the Marshal, and a regiment for the Light House. All who have had office heretofore, expect to be re-appointed, and all who have not, look for the "good time coming?"—There will be nobody disappointed, of course.

DODGE CO, Neosho; Scott, 63, Pierce 80, Hale 31. Congress, Shafter 61, Miney 86, McKee 30. Assembly, Lehman 68, Sayles 109. The whig county ticket has an average of 10 or 12 majority in the town. The vote for the Bank Law stood 140 to 0.

THE VOTE IN MASSACHUSETTS.—The Boston Advertiser of the 4th has returns from all the towns in the state but three. The votes stand as follows:

Scott.	Pierce.	Hale.	Scattering.
59,957	46,834	28,834	1850.

Scott's plurality 7,123.

PHILADELPHIA.—On the night of the 2d, the telegraph reported that the city of Philadelphia had given Mr. Pierce a majority of 3000. We did not believe it; and the papers of that city now show that Gen'l Scott's majority is 3542. In the county, Mr. Pierce's majority is 1,458.

MASSACHUSETTS.—There she stands! and with her VERMONT, the "Star that never sets." So the record for Gen. Scott has stood for some days. Last night, the Telegraph brought news that old KENTUCKY and TENNESSEE stand beside their noble sister States.

NEW BRIDGE.—The Dodge Co., Gazette learns that a substantial bridge, 140 feet long, has just been completed across the Rubicon river at Neosho, by Mr. L. S. Van Orden.

WASHINGTON MONUMENT.—The city of Albany contributed $378,49 to the Monument Fund, and the city of Cincinnati $1150.

THE GUANO BUSINESS.—It will be remembered that the ship Manlius, belonging to Messrs. Magoun & Son, of this city, having arrived off the Lobos for the purpose of loading with guano, was ordered off, and left for Callao. A letter from Lima, states that the Government of Peru, on being made aware of this, sent orders to Callao to offer a charter party to her on her arrival, which has been done and accepted, to load at Chincha. It is also stated that the same course will be pursued with all the other Lobos vessels. This action of the Peruvian government shows a liberality and kindness that should not be forgotten in a final settlement of this unfortunate business.—Journal.

A TURKISH BATH.—Bayard Taylor, in his last letter, thus describes a Turkish bath which he enjoyed at the warm springs of Brousa in Asia Minor.

The room into which we were taken was so hot that a violent perspiration immediately broke out all over my body, and by the time the delikes were ready to rasp me, I was as limp as a wet towel, and as plastic as a piece of putty. The man who took me was sweated away almost to nothing: his very bones appeared to have become soft and pliable. The temperature of the water is 180° Fahrenheit, and I suppose the tank into which he afterwards plunged me must have been nearly up to the mark. When, at last, I was laid on the couch, my body was so parboiled that I perspired at all pores for full an hour—a feeling not entirely free from pleasure at first, but presently merging into a mood which was wholly rapturous and heavenly. I was like a soft white cloud, that rests all of a summer afternoon on the peak of a distant mountain. I saw nothing but peaceful, glorious sights: spaces of pure blue sky; stretches of quiet lawns; lovely valleys threaded by the gentlest of streams; azure lakes mirrored by a breath; calms far out on mid-ocean, and Alpine peaks bathed in the flush of an Autumnal sunset. Then, as my frame grew cooler, and the fragrant clouds of the narghileh, which had helped my dreams, diminished, I was like that same summer cloud, when it feels a gentle breeze and is lifted above the hills, floating along independent of earth, but for its shadow.

SINGULAR RECOVERY OF A MISSING DEPOSITE.—A gentleman who is doing business as a stock broker at 57 State street, in this city, occupies as an office the room some years ago used as a banking house by the Eagle Bank. In one corner of the room a fire-proof vault is walled in with brick, arched arch and inside with iron, and closed by great iron doors. The broker on Saturday was removing from one of the dark corners of the vault some rubbish and waste paper which had accumulated there, and pushing a stick which he held in his hand between the gratings, it struck something which sounded like coin. Upon examining closely he discovered and drew out a small bag containing twenty doubloons and some small coin. The bag was marked—

D. Draper, 23 doubloons and one half sovereign, 2 doubloons cut. June 29.

Thinking that it must be one of the clerks of the Eagle Bank, the broker repaired with the treasure to that institution, and requested the officers to try and ascertain if the funds were theirs. Upon examination of the books, it was discovered that some six or seven years ago, Daniel Draper, of this city, made the identical special deposite in the bank; and after a short time, on calling for his funds the bag had strangely disappeared, and could not be found. The clerk remembers that the most rigid examination and search was instituted to no purpose, and that every means was used to ascertain the manner of its abstraction, but in vain.

The money being a special deposite, the bank did not consider itself liable, but finally compromised the affair by itself and Mr. Draper each pocketing one-half of the loss. And there the money has lain undisturbed for seven years, where it had accidentally fallen in an obscure corner of a safe, until one infant grandchild, whom a nurse carried to ofticiating like in a crevice of the rock; the cradle was then dismantled, and the baby became the darkness of Montebello. But she never spoke more of the horror of having been indirectly the destruction of her whole race occasioned her to become insane, and she poisoned herself within a month of her departure from her native town.

"In process of time, the child saved by the nurse grew up, and was introduced as a page into the Montebello family, the Baron having remarried, and being now the undisputed possessor of both territories as far as the sea; but after many years of life, the wretched man became wild with remorse for his past iniquities, and made over all his possessions to the Church, provided only no living descendant of the Pentedatilo family could be found, a decent proviso, apparently made without any risk. Then he left the nunnery and a small number of the old Marchese's friends poured, beyond any doubt, that the page was heir to the estates and revenge of his ancestors! And here you might suppose the story ended. Not at all. The Baron's hatred returned on finding there was really something on which to exercise it, and he ordered the torture and execution of young Pentedatilo forthwith. But now the tables were turned; the Baron's long reign of wickedness lent weapons to his adversary's cause, and in his turn, the last scion of the murdered Marchese became a tyrant. Forthwith the whole family of the Baron Montebello were destroyed before their parent's eyes, and he himself then blinded by order of the avenger, and chained for the rest of his days in the very room where he had slain the grandsire Pentedatilo.

"Finally, as if it were ordered that the actors in such a wholesale domestic tragedy were unfit to remain on earth, the castle of Pentedatio fell by the shock of an earthquake, together the Baron and Marchese, with the nurse, and every other agent in this Calabrian horror!"

OUR HETEROGENEOUSNESS.—Probably no city in the world, of any considerable population, exhibits such a heterogeneous people as the city of New York. Nations and tongues and kindred and people from all parts of the world are here, and our thoroughfares and hostelries are a perfect Babel of languages. In a five-minute walk, you meet Christian, Jew Turk, and Gentile, bond and free, of all complexions and creeds. TAKING THE RESPONSIBILITY.—Miss LUCY A. SIMMONS writes to Mrs. AMELIA BLOOMER touching matters and things connected with "women's rights," and says:

"Some almost doubt the propriety of Woman's taking the responsibility."

They must be queer creatures indeed who doubt the propriety of woman's performing that great duty! If a woman has a "responsibility" who should "take" it if she should not? Is it not her peculiar province, not only to "take" it, but to hold it, tend it, wash it dress it, nurse it, rock, trot it on her knees, &c., &c. It is the duty of Miss SIMMONS to expose the unnatural shackels she alludes to, and we trust she will do so.—Albany Register.

EDITORIAL CONVENTION.—The Madison Argus suggests than an Editorial Convention be held at Madison on the 15th of January next, "for the purpose of advancing the prosperity of the craft."

An Interesting Letter.

The following letter is copied from the proof sheets of a work in the press of the Harpers, from the pen of CHARLES LANMAN, entitled the "Private Life of Daniel Webster." It is addressed to the overseer of his farm in Franklin, New Hampshire:—

WASHINGTON, March 13th, 1352.

JOHN TAYLOR:—I am glad to hear from you again, and to learn that you are well, and that teams and tools are ready for spring's work, wherever the weather will allow you to begin. I sometimes read books on farming, and I remember that Sir Humphrey Davy, a very sensible old author advises farmers "to go to work naked and sow naked." By this he means that there is no use in beginning spring's work till the weather is warm, that a farmer may throw aside his winter clothes and roll up his sleeves. Yet he says we ought to begin as early in the year as possible. He wrote some very pretty verses on this subject, which, as far as I remember, ran thus:—

"While yet the spring is young, while earth exhales
The frozen bosom to the western gales;
While mountain snows dissolve against the sun,
And streams, yet new, from pin ofpines run—
Even in this early dawning of the year
Produce the plow, and yoke the sturdy steer:
And mark him till he smoke beneath his toil,
And the bright share is buried in the soil."

John Taylor, when you read these lines, do you not see the snow melting, and the little streams beginning to run down the southern slopes of your Peach-brook pasture, and your grass starting and growing in the trickling water, all green, bright and beautiful? And do you not see your Durham ocen snuffing from heat and perspiration as they draw along your great breaking-up plough, cutting and turning over the rough sward in your meadow in the great field? The name of this sensible author is Virgil; and he gives farmers much other advice, some of which you have been following all this winter without knowing that he had given it.

"But when cold weather, heavy snows and rain,
The laboring farmer in his house restrain,
Let him forecast his work, with timely care,
Which else is huddled when the skies are fair:
Then let him mark the sheep, and whet the shining share,
Or hollow trees for boats, or hamper for
His sacks, or measure his increasing store:
Or sharpen stakes, and mend each prong and fork.
So to be ready, in good time, to work—
Visit his crowded barns as early morn,
Look to his granary, and shell his corn:
Give a good breakfast to his numerous hine,
His shivering pottery and his fattening swine."

And Mr. Virgil says some other things, which you understand up at Franklin as well as ever he did:—

"In chilling winter, swains enjoy their store,
Forget their hardships, and recruit for more:
The farmer to full feasts invites his friends,
And what he got with pains, with pleasure spends:
Draws close around the fire, and tells, one more
Stories which often have been told before:
Spreads a clean table, with dishes good to eat,
And adds some moistening to his meat and meat;
They praise his hospitality, and feel
They shall sleep better after such a meal."

John Taylor, by the time you have got through this, you will have read enough. The sum of all is, be ready for your spring's work as soon as the weather becomes warm enough, and then put your hand to the plow, and look not back.

DANIEL WEBSTER.

From Lewis's Landscape Painter in Calabria. A Calabrian Romance.

For centuries the families of these two rival possessors of the towns of Pentedatilo and Montebello had been deadly foes, and they ruled, or fought for, the adjoining country, from their strongholds, in persevering enmity. The Baron of Montebello, a daring and ferocious youth, was left near in early life to his ancestral estates and rights, and fell in love with the only daughter of the Marchese Pentedatilo; but, although the young lady had contrived to acquaint her lover that her heart was his, her hand was steadfastly denied him by the Marchese, whom the memory of long injuries and wars hardened in his relentless. Opposition, however, did but increase the attachment of the young lady, and she at length consented to leave her father's house with her lover; an arrangement being made that on a certain night she should open a door in the otherwise impenetrable rock fortress of Pentedatilo, and admit young Montebello with a sufficient force of his retainers to insure the success of her elopement.

"The Baron accordingly entered the castle, but finding that equal opportunity is presented him for vengeance on his feudal enemy, and for possession of the object of his attachment, he resolves to make the most of both: he goes first to the chamber of the Marchese of Pentedatilo, and finds him sleeping by the side of the Marchesa, with a dagger at his pillow's head. Him he stabs, yet not so fatally as to prevent him placing the left hand on the wound, and with his right seizing his stiletto, and plunging it into the heart of the innocent Marchesa, suspecting her as the author of his death. The Baron Montebello repeating his blows, the Marchese falls forward on the wall, and his five blood-stained fingers leave traces, still shown, on part of the ruined hall—a horrible memorial of the struggle—strangely coincident with that of the former and remote deed.

"Immediately on the consummation of this double tragedy, the active young Baron Montebello carried off the young lady, the remaining barony out all the family of the Marchese to death at one infant grandchild, whom a nurse saved

Disasters on the Lakes—Five Lives Lost.

Buffalo, Nov. 8th.

The wind, which had been blowing from the east for several days, changed to the west Saturday night and blew with great force. Some damage has been done to the shipping caught out.—The schooner M. Donsman, loaded with coal, is sunk in the harbor at Erie.

The schooner R. C. Smeads also loaded with coal, has gone to pieces at Barcelona. The bark Canada, with a cargo of coal from Chicago, went ashore during Erie, was struck by the gale and has her top gallant mast carried away. She ran for port which she made during the forenoon of yesterday. A vessel painted black is reported ashore at Long Point. The steamers Michigan and Traveler which left Saturday night, returned to port yesterday, the weather proving too heavy for them.

Propeller Samson sprung a leak and had to throw overboard 600 barrels of Flour consigned to H. Wood & Co., from Cleveland.

She was towed into this port, this morning, by U. S. Steamer Michigan.

An old man from Conneaut, has just fallen in the street, and died in a fit.

The Barque Rochester, Capt. Myers, that left Cleveland on Saturday, with a load of Coal for Buffalo, sprung a leak, and was run ashore near Walnut Creek, yesterday morning. All hands, eleven in number, last—except the Captain and cook. Boat—total wreck. She is gone out of sight.

Erie, Nov. 8th.

Barque Rochester went ashore above this place yesterday about one o'clock, and went to the bottom. Nine of the eleven person on board were lost.

NEW TRADE EXPECT IN BRAZIL.—The African slave trade which for so many years was extensively carried on by Brazil, has at length become abated through the decided steps taken by that government. The late advices from Rio de Janeiro state that the Emperor, in closing the session of the Chambers, pronounced the slave trade extinct, and the laws sufficiently stringent to prevent its revival. A Portuguese, named Brandao, who acquired vast wealth in the trade, has been expelled from Brazil on suspicion of an attempt to renew the baleful commerce.

HIGH WIND ON THE LAKES.—Some eight or ten steamboats and Propellers, with several vesselsare lying in the harbor awaiting a cessation of the "blow" for their departure.

The Sultana arrived late last night from Buffalo, she had a severe time with the wind, but came through without any damage. She goes down to-morrow night.—Detroit Advertiser Nov. 9.

IMPORTATION OF BUTTER.—We notice that importations of Irish Butter are being made into the port of New York. A large invoice of the best Irish Rose butter, was received from Cork by the Pacific, and large orders have gone out for more. It costs in Cork 80 shillings per hundred and 84 shillings in Liverpool or about 18 cents per pound.—Int. Advertiser.

FURNACE!

WE ARE HAPPY TO ANNOUNCE THAT CHILSONS PATENT AIR WARMING AND VENTILATING FURNACE, as recently improved and patented is decidedly the most perfect ever offered to the public.

BEST FURNACE IN THE WORLD.

Not only is this Furnace and our system of ventilation, proved and declared to be the best mode of Warming and Ventilating DWELLING, CHURCHES, ACADEMIES, SCHOOL HOUSES, COURT and STATE HOUSES, HOSPITALS, STORES &c., in nearly all the cities and towns in the United States, but is meeting with equal favor in the CANADAS, ENGLAND, RUSSIA, and other Foreign Countries. It has been awarded at the recent Fairs in this country, gold and silver medals, first premiums, and lastly the Great Prize Medal at the World's Fair, London. It has been subjected to the most rigid investigation and severe practical tests, and unanimously declared the best—(See the gold and silver medals of the Fairs, also city and state certificates on public buildings.) We have more than twenty-five hundred references, many of whom are professional gentlemen, whose scientific attainments as stud mechanics with their practical knowledge of the subject, the inventor of this Furnace first abandoned the manufacture of the common fire pot air furnaces seven years since, under the settled conviction, that red hot iron thrown into burn the oxygen out of the air, producing an unhealthy, scorching, disagreeable odor, (one to be inhaled by human beings,) besides the constant cracking and burning out of the pots, which permits the poisonous gases to escape and mingle with the air; and the annoyance and expense of repairs, new pots, &c. He now has the satisfaction of knowing that his efforts to secure a healthful, economical and durable apparatus, for thoroughly warming and ventilating buildings, has been entirely successful. They possess the following advantages: purity of air, powerful heaters, economical fuel, for burning anthracite, bituminous coals or wood, all equally well—fides easily clean ed out—great durability of furnace, not liable to repairs for a life time—perfect safety against fire, and burning fire in which they are located; may be set in low cellars, on sleds for all classes of buildings. Also, 4 sizes of new and superior PORTABLE FURNACES.—Dr. Clark's Improved and Boston School Stove.

SAUGATUCK IRON WORKS,

WESTPORT, CONN.

OFFICE 245 WATER STREET, NEW-YORK.

WE DESIRE TO CALL ATTENTION TO THE following articles which we are manufacturing for Railroad companies, towits:—Car wheels and axles, boxes and pedestals, wheel presses, locomotive drivers and crank pins, screw cutters, drilling machines, switch stands, levers and targets, frogs, head and heel blocks, chairs, and all castings connected with railroad superstructure.

WHEELS.—Nearly two years since we commenced business, with the view of making wheels. We were then informed by railroad men, engineers and experienced men entitled their opinions to great weight, that the wheel was imperfect, and advised us to attempt its improvement—With this view we set to work, and commenced an examination of the various patterns in use, to ascertain and secure the best. We soon became convinced that a majority of the wheels would prove unsafe. The defective principle which they contained was sufficiently strong and properly shided. Since then, we have left no means unemployed that we could control, to produce a new and stronger combination of iron, than ever before used, and feel confident that we have succeeded, with which we are now manufacturing double and single plate and spoke wheels, for passenger, freight and tender purposes, on the most approved principles. While they will cost something more than ordinary wheels, but it is confidently predicted by those whose opinions are most valuable in such matters, that they will possess a greater amount of strength than any cast or combination wheel made. They are the invention of Geo. W. Whistler, jr., Esq., engineer of the Western Railroad, whose skill in such matters is sufficiently known) and intended to obviate the influence of contraction and expansion to an extent that will render them perfectly safe in all we then, at the highest rate of speed.

AXLES.—We will be none but the best fagoted, which are superior to any other.

SWITCH STANDS, LEVERS AND TARGETS.—We have adopted a stand that recommends itself for simplicity of construction, and the fact that one hundred and seventy-five (175) are now in use upon the Western Railroad, is sufficiently known to render comment unnecessary.

SHOPS.—The attention of Mr. Van Bierenbroeck's useful, cheap and successful machine.

BOXES AND PEDESTALS, of any size or pattern to order.

DRILLING MACHINES, of a very simple and very substantial character.

WHEEL PRESSES—Made to order.

LOCOMOTIVE DRIVERS AND CYLINDERS.—Made to order.

FROGS, CHAIRS, HEAD & HEEL BLOCKS, and all work connected with superstructure, made by contract.

Predicating our success on the facilities we possess of procuring the latest improvements in machinery, and unsurpassed science of our workmen in mechanic and finish, we solicit orders.
